Paris, September 5, N. S.

THE Cardinal de Rohan arrived here the 28th paſt from Strasbourg, and on the 30th proceeded to Fontainebleau. Bread being very dear at preſent, the Parliament of Paris have cauſed an Arrêt to be publiſhed, ordering that from the 27th of Auguſt laſt (the Date of that Arrêt) the Allowance for Victuals to Priſoners for Debt ſhould be increaſed from five to ſeven Sols a Day to each Priſoner, to be paid by their Creditors, who are commanded by the ſaid Arrêt to advance one Month's Allowance. The King has been pleaſed to promote M. Herault, Intendant of Tours, to the Office of Lieutenant-General de Police of this City, in the Room of M. d'Ombreval, who is made Intendant of Tours, and has a Penſion of 6000 Livres ſettled on him by his Majeſty. The ſaid new Intendant has ſent circular Orders into the Country, round this Place, for the regular ſupplying of the Markets from time to time with Bread-Corn, and for preventing the concealing of Corn in private Granaries. M. Lambert being nominated by his Majeſty to be Prevoſt des Merchands of this City, in the Room of M de Chateauneuf, the other City-Magiſtrates aſſembled on the 27th paſt, and choſe him into that Office. An Ordinance by the King in Council has been publiſhed, by which his Majeſty's Guard of an Hundred Swiſs are forbidden to ſell Wine or any other Liquors, or to lodge in any Houſe where the ſame is ſold, on the Penalty of a Fine, ſix Months Impriſonment, and of being caſhiered. By the ſame Ordinance the Pay of the ſaid Hundred Swiſs is increaſed from 14 to 20 Sols a Day. The Parliament are about to chuſe a Deputation of 60 Perſons from among themſelves, to go to Fontainebleau, and make their Compliments to the King on his Marriage.

Whereas ſome few Invalid Out-Penſioners belonging to the Royal Hoſpital at Chelſea are unpaid on ſeveral Warrants from the 25th of June 1722, to the 24th of December 1723: This is therefore to give Notice, that if neither themſelves, Executors, or Aſſignees, do appear at the Pay Office in the ſaid Hoſpital, to make out their Demands on or before the 29th of September 1725. they will be for ever excluded from receiving the ſame.

The Court of Directors of the Equivalent Company do give Notice, That a General Court of the ſaid Company is appointed to be held at their Houſe in Freeman's Court in Cornhill, London, on Thurſday the 30th Day of September next, at Eleven a-Clock in the Forenoon, being a yearly General Court appointed by the Charter.
